AG Bruning: Fullerton Man Sentenced to a Maximum of 60-70 Years for Sexual Assault and Incest

LINCOLN - Attorney General Jon Bruning today announced that Jimmy Hoffman, 61, of Fullerton was sentenced for repeatedly sexually assaulting two of his daughters. He was sentenced to 18-20 years in prison on one count of incest and 30-35 years on one count of sexual assault for each of his two victims. The sentences will be served consecutively.

“At the hands of their father, these women suffered abuses no child should endure,” said Bruning. “Finally, Mr. Hoffman will pay for his disgusting crimes.”

Hoffman sexually assaulted the victims from the time each girl was approximately eight-years-old. The victims are now aged 18 and 38.

In March 2010, law enforcement was alerted to Hoffman’s crimes by his 38-year-old daughter. In December, he pleaded no contest to two counts of sexual assault and two counts of incest.

As a part of the Attorney General’s 2009 legislative package, the statute of limitations on incest was removed.

Assistant Attorney General Sandra Allen handled the case.
